

VIRGINIA COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

Virginia Council of Churches Anti-racism Pro-reconciliation Training

April 18-20, 2024
Registration Fee - $140

Training Information:

The Training Session is designed to provide the foundation of anti-racism pro-reconciliation education that will allow clergy and congregational leadership to fully participate in an ongoing process of developing anti-racist pro-reconciled identity and lifestyles which will ultimately impact their churches and communities. The primary components of the Training Session address the areas of “overview, awareness, assessment and action”. While the components do build upon those that precede them, there is also some overlapping among the components.

Facilitators:

Rev. Dr. Raymond Person,
Professor of Religion and Director of Interdisciplinary Studies at Ohio Northern University

Rev. Mary Anne Glover,
General Minister, Virginia Council of Churches

Training Location:

Virginia Council of Churches
1214 W. Graham Road
Richmond, VA 23220

Thursday, April 18 to Saturday, April 20. The training will begin at 9:30 a.m.,
April 18 and conclude at 1:00 p.m., April 20

Housing at:

Holiday Inn Express
9933 Mayland Drive
Richmond, VA 23233

If overnight accommodations are needed, please call the listed Holiday Inn and state you are with the Virginia Council of Churches. The rate per night is $107.00.

Please register using this link:

ARPR Team Training Registration Link